A Reflection from the desk of the Pastor

The Fourteen Sunday in Ordinary Time July 3, 2022 Year C

When Jesus sent the disciples out in pairs, he warned them that they were going out like lambs among wolves. They were to beware of the fact that they might be treated in a hostile manner, like prey. This was meant to make them cautious of the realities of preaching the good news. Jesus never minced words with them. He always gave the disciples the true picture of the apostolate.

Jesus also directed the disciples to offer their peace to the households which they entered. Incidentally, the people who welcomed the disciples were the ones that would experience the peace that was offered by the apostles. Those that rejected the apostles would receive a fate that was worse than that of Sodom. There is a lesson to be learned here. God's peace and blessings are offered to us. However, we benefit from this generous offer according to our disposition. The disciples were to rely on what was provided for their welfare. This implied a reliance on God's providence for them. They were not to be distracted from their mission by trying to provide for their own welfare.

At the end of their mission, the disciples came back rejoicing because of the positive results they experienced. They affirmed the fact that Jesus had indeed given them power to defeat the enemy. Jesus remarked that he saw "Satan fall like lightning". In their joy, Jesus pointed to a higher purpose of the apostolate. Their names were written in heaven. Over and above the enemy's defeat, faithfulness to the apostolate guarantees one a place in heaven. How faithful are we to the apostolate of preaching the Word? Perhaps, we can learn from the apostles how to be faithful to the ministry of preaching the Word.

A PRAYER FOR THE COMMUNITY OF UVALDE

Heavenly Father,

You are the source of life and the seat of all wisdom. You call us to grow in knowledge, to serve with compassion, and to thrive in community. Our schools, all schools, are formed for this.

Once again and still, a school has been rocked by gun violence. A place of learning was transformed into a place of violence. Innocent children lost their lives. Dedicated teachers lost their lives. Welcome them into your loving embrace. Show your justice and mercy to the gunman.

Give solace to the parents and community of Uvalde. Give comfort to all those who have witnessed tragedy and are trying to comprehend this senseless act. Give courage to lawmakers to enact laws that finally and truly control guns; Give boldness to citizens to demand action from their elected officials.

Bless us with your protection, for we are all your children. May we live in peace; May we learn in safety; and may we strive to bring the peace of Christ to our troubled world.

Grant this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – 03 July 2022

Isaiah 66:10-14c. Psalm 66:1-3, 4-5, 6-7, 16, 20. Galatians 6:14-18. Luke 10:1-12, 17-20.

About Being Disciples. Jesus tells the chosen 72 where to go (ahead of him), what not to take (extra baggage), and how to behave (stay and accompany). Saint Paul carries this forward by stressing what is important for those who follow Jesus (boasting in the Cross of Christ).

- What does Jesus empower me to do and say today?
- How will I embrace the Cross of Christ this week?
- How will this discipleship enrich the Kingdom of God?

Themes in the Gospel of St. Luke

Presenter: Mark Etling, Ph.D. When: Saturdays, July 9, 16, 23, 10 a.m. – 12 Noon Cost: $10 per session

Each of the four Gospels focuses on different aspects of Jesus' ministry and teaching. The Gospel of Luke is known as the Gospel of the Poor, the Gospel of Women and the Gospel of the Holy Spirit. Why did Luke choose to highlight the importance of poor people and women, when both were considered inferior and on the margins of society? Why is so much more importance attached to the Holy Spirit in Luke and the Acts of the Apostles than the other Gospels? Join us as we discuss these important themes in the Gospel of Luke. Respect Life Corner:

“The Catholic Church has a long history of service to those who are most vulnerable and remains the largest private provider of social services in the United States. Through the sacrificial efforts of faithful Catholics, the Church serves millions through diocesan ministries and agencies, Catholic hospitals and healthcare systems, immigration clinics, shelters, and Catholic schools and parishes. From religious communities to pregnancy care centers, from refugee resettlement services to foster care and adoption agencies, and from maternity homes to parish-based ministries, the Church consistently bears witness in word and deed to the beauty and dignity of every human life—including both mother and child.” USCCB Committee Chairmen, “Standing with Moms in Need”

ROE V WADE OVERTURNED – VITAE FOUNDATION CHARGES ON (Jefferson City, Mo.)

This week, the United States Supreme Court released a decision that would affirm the sanctity of human life, a moment much of the country never thought would come.

Vitae Foundation, the world leader in research of abortion decision-making, has long awaited the overturn of Roe v Wade since the organization was founded in 1974, shortly after the original Supreme Court decision in 1971.

Since its inception, Vitae Foundation has invested over $4 million in research to better understand the psychological motivators for abortion. Once findings are discovered, Vitae’s in-house team perfects the application of those findings by testing various media in selected communities. General findings and their best application are then shared at no cost with pro-life peers across the world. Additionally, the messages that are most successful in communicating with abortion-determined women are shared on a grand scale with Pregnancy Help Centers (PHCs) at no cost.

This Supreme Court decision now allows for each state to legislate abortion law, which also affects pregnancy centers nationwide.

In Missouri, where Vitae Foundation’s national headquarters is located, there is a trigger law in place that would make abortion illegal. This does not mean that pregnancy centers can close, and that Vitae’s work is finished in Missouri. Regardless of this decision, women will still face unexpected pregnancies and will need the support PHCs provide in all fifty states. Vitae Foundation President Debbie Stokes explains, “Many people don’t know that PHCs exist to connect women with financial resources, housing, free or low-cost daycare options, clothing, food, and emotional support during and after the pregnancy.” She adds, “No matter the legality of abortion, many women need the support of pregnancy centers. Our ProWomanApproach embodies love and respect for those mothers and their children. Out of that respect, we want women to be fully informed of all the options and resources at their disposal before they make their final decision.”

Vitae Foundation is a national non-profit organization that leads the world in its research of abortion-decision making, tests its findings using digital media campaigns, and shares best practices at no cost to pro-life peers worldwide to encourage a culture of life.
