A Reflection from the Pastor

Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 13, 2022

Year C

Luke wrote this gospel after the devastation of Jerusalem by the Roman armies in 70 AD. Jesus spoke to the people regarding the certainty of the end times. He however warned them not to get carried away by false Messiahs or political leaders who claimed to correct the world. Jesus also warned them about the martyrdom that they might face which might entail betrayal by those they considered to be friends. They were not to prepare a defense during their time of persecution as they would be given an eloquent response that their persecutors could not match. Notice that Jesus did not promise to deliver them from all the difficulties and persecutions that awaited them. In applying this gospel to our lives, let us be aware that we may sometimes encounter difficulties and challenges on account of the gospel, like Jesus did. During such moments, we are called to endure and persevere. Our endurance will win us our lives. How do we cope in the face of persecution or betrayal?

Please be reminded of the Dupo Area Churches Thanksgiving service on Tuesday, November 22nd, 2022. This is a great opportunity for communal prayer and worship.

This campaign is the national anti-poverty program of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, working to carry out the mission of Jesus Christ

"...to bring glad tidings to the poor...liberty to captives...sight to the blind, and let the oppressed go free." (Luke 4:18)

The belief that those who are directly affected by unjust systems and structures have the best insight into knowing how to change them is central to CCHD. CCHD works to break the cycle of poverty by helping low-income people participate in decisions that affect their lives, families and communities. CCHD offers a hand up, not a hand out.
