July 9, 2023    The Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time    Year A

In the gospel, we are privileged to hear Jesus speak intimately to his Father. It is the kind of intimacy that we might observe between a child and his or her parents. Jesus praises God (Lord of heaven and earth) for the favors he has bestowed on his people. Because of God's graciousness, the "little ones" has come to be known more about Jesus than the religious scholars like the Scribes and the Pharisees. Jesus invites people who have become tired in spirit to come to him for rest. These are probably people who are struggling to meet the requirements for discipleship under the demands of the Scribes and Pharisees. Jesus promises them inner peace, which the world cannot give. However, Jesus does not take their suffering and frustration away altogether. Their burdens become lighter with Jesus' help.

Jesus also invites the disciples to bear his yoke. In biblical and Jewish tradition, the yoke is often used as a metaphor for religious instruction. This, therefore, entailed submission to Jesus' instructions. This was probably Jesus' way of telling the disciples that although discipleship was not burdenless, their burden would not be exhausting if they heeded his words and trusted in him. We are called to the same standards as were the disciples. Our Christian journey may also be challenging. However, the challenges are not insurmountable. If we heed Jesus' instructions, we would also be able to surmount the challenges we encounter on our Christian journey.

Based in part on a commentary on the gospel of Matthew by Curtis Mitch and Edward Sri.

Journey to Nicaea:

The Evolution of Christianity from Gospel to Creed

Presenter: Mark Etling, PhD

Saturdays, August 5 and September 2 10:00 am - Noon

The first four centuries of the Christian era saw an incredible evolution – from a tiny movement in Israel to a vast, thriving institution in much of the Roman Empire. In its earliest days the Christian movement was a disorganized network of communities with no Bible, no central authority, and no unified system of beliefs. But by the year 400 the Church had adopted a universal statement of faith – the Nicene Creed. In this three-part series we will explore Christianity's historical and theological journey from Jerusalem to Nicaea. Cost: $10 per session / $30 for the series. For more information, call 618-394-6281.

While praying one day a little girl asked, “Who are you Lord?” He answered, “I Am” “But, Who is I Am?” she asked. And He replied...”I Am Love, I Am Peace, I Am Grace, I Am Joy, I Am the Way, Truth, and the Light...I Am the Comforter, I Am Strength, I Am Safety, I Am Shelter, I Am Power, I Am the Creator, I Am the Beginning and the End, I Am the Most High” The girl, with tears in her eyes looked toward heaven and said, “Now I understand...but Lord, who am I?” Then God tenderly wiped the tears from her eyes and whispered, “You are Mine!”
